

8-CYLINDER CADILLAC IS HERE

Seven Passenger, $2,125.00, F. O. B. Ogden

In the seven passenger car, there are two comfortable extra seats, which fold into recesses, and are concealed out of the way when not in use.

There is no intermission between impulses but rather an overlapping so complete that one melts or merges into another. The torque therefore is constant and the flow of power is continuous.

Five Passenger, $2,125.00, F. O. B. Ogden

It is admitted, we believe, that this company produced in the four-cylinder field a succession of cars which earned the title, "Standard of the world."

The tilting steering wheel, which is on the left side, and the position of the control levers, make it possible for the driver and front seat passenger to enter the car at either side.

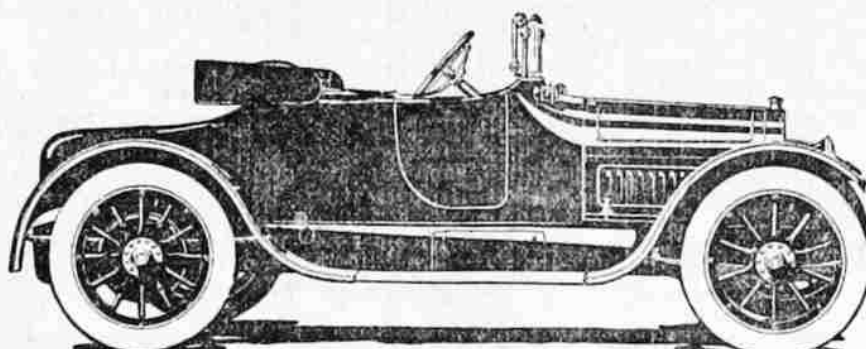

The shifting of gears is easy and quiet. After getting under way, which is only a matter of moments, one rarely has occasion to change gears unless at times, perhaps, to meet some unusual or extreme condition.

Salon, $2,125.00, F. O. B. Ogden

Eight power impulses in every cycle—overlapping so completely that they melt and merge, one into another, in a steady flow of power.

Coupe, $2,650.00, F. O. B. Ogden

In operation you enjoy the widest flexibility. From less than three miles an hour in crowded city streets and congested traffic—without change of gears and without nursing or especially skillful manipulation—to more than sixty miles an hour on the open highway has been demonstrated to be the range.

The Cadillac Eight is a car of practically throttle control, of rapid and easy acceleration. From a snail's pace to the speed of the wind, without apparent effort, without hesitation, without tremor.

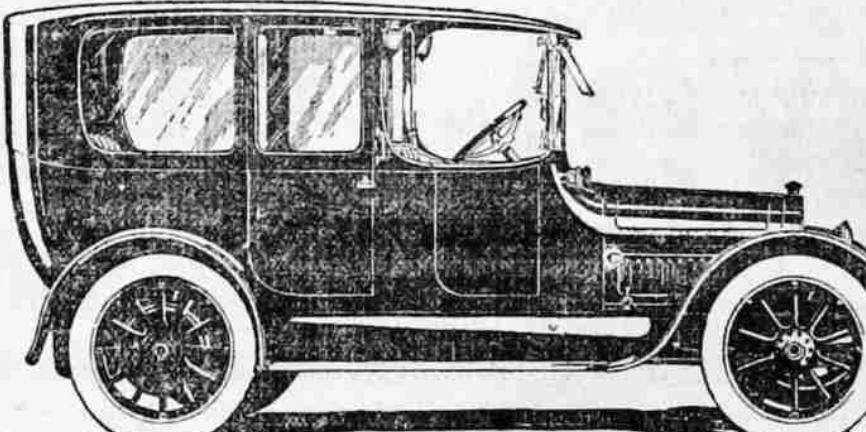

We are serenely confident that after the first ride, your own expressions of delight will go far beyond anything we may have said in these announcements, or any enthusiasm that may be expressed by the Cadillac dealer.

Sedan, $2,950.00, F. O. B. Ogden

One of the most interesting performances in the economy contest just held at Harrisburg, Pa., was that of the eight-cylinder Cadillac. This car checked in at the end of the run with a record of practically 17 miles per gallon of gasoline to its credit.

The route of the contest run was 111 miles and led through the mountainous country around Harrisburg. The Cadillac, throughout, carried seven passengers, extra tires, etc.

WARSAW MUST YIELD TO KAISER

London, Dec. 18, 3:25 a. m.—No definite news has yet come from the Russian side of the great German victory in Poland, reported in Berlin and Vienna. The Russian official headquarters report received tonight gives no information on the subject, and the customary long Petrograd dispatches dealing with the military operations in this district are absent from the London newspapers this morning, which would seem to indicate that a censorship has been imposed on Petrograd.

A Petrograd dispatch refers at some length to the alleged instructions of the German emperor to his staff that an attempt to capture Warsaw must be made at all hazards. Rumors of such instructions have been current for some days, and according to the Novoe Vremya, the plan is connected with the idea that the capture of Warsaw would provide a suitable momentum for the proposal of a peace conference. The Novoe Vremya says: "The very violence with which the German efforts are being made prove that some great gain is sought."

According to other accounts, Germany is employing 750,000 men in the movement toward Warsaw. The Daily Mail's correspondent says the Russian retirement on Sochazew is generally approved as wise. The position there is protected by swamps and commands the surrounding country. "Unfortunately," the Daily Mail's correspondent continues, "it seems as if German mobility has again given them superiority over numbers. The Russians supposed they had sufficient men present to check the Germans at this point, but it is believed that the Germans brought troops around from Mlawa, thus weakening the force there which has since been chased to the frontier."

BERLIN REJOICES OVER BIG VICTORY

Berlin, via London, Dec. 17, 11:10 p. m.—The people of Berlin were aroused to enthusiasm today by the announcement of a great Austro-German victory over the Russians in Poland. An official bulletin to this effect was issued shortly after noon. Within half an hour extra editions of the papers appeared and the whole city lit-rally flashed into busting. American visitors who a few days ago commented upon the nondisplay of flags, scarcely recognized the streets, which everywhere were gay with the German black, white and red and the Austrian orange and black, at many places intertwined. At the Reichstag, where a Red Cross meeting was in session, word was received from the palace that the great victory of the war had been won. The schools will close tomorrow so that the children may assemble to celebrate the event. The first intimation of the nature and extent of the Russian defeat was received here last evening and circulated in official quarters, but nothing was known of it generally until the official bulletin was published. It has been understood that the Russians were in a precarious position, but it was not hinted that a decisive result was at hand. The official bulletin issued yesterday reported that the operations were "proceeding normally," which phrase is the usual termination of the official report. It is known now that thousands of Russians have been taken prisoners."

TO STANDARD SUBSCRIBERS

There are many subscribers who made part payment on dishes or some other premium as long as two years ago, others signed contracts to buy certain premiums. Hence there are many contracts out for which The Standard has been holding premiums. All these contracts will be outlawed after January 1, 1915. We cannot hold the premiums any longer and they will not be held after January 1. We are holding forty sets of dishes for somebody. We do not know who the subscribers are, but after January 1 all premium contracts over twelve months' old will be null and void.

MERE YOUTHS IN THE GERMAN ARMY

The Hague, Dec. 17, via London, Dec. 18, 1:39 a. m.—According to afternoon newspapers, the Germans are rushing large bodies of troops through Belgium past Dutch border points. It is the impression of the newspapers that the new troops are volunteer forces, as it is declared that most of them are very young—from 17 to 19 years of age.

It is asserted that 700 cavalry and 1500 infantry were observed at Bruges going southeast; 500 infantry and 1500 marines at Knocke, proceeding in the same direction, and 900 hussars at Damme, and 100 hussars at Mostkerke. Other troops are reported from various places, but their numbers were not known.
